4 December 1985

Mr. Max Hugel
Chairman, Project '88
1667 K Street, N.W., Suite 950
Washington, D.C. 20006

Max,

I want to thank you for your very thoughtful letter in asking me to serve as an honorary co-chairman for the dinner honoring William Loeb. I was personally tempted to do this not only because I subscribe to the thought but that it was an excellent way to get some of the wolves off my ass! What deterred me was Bill Casey's philosophy of taking a vow of political chastity while we serve in this role.

Maybe when I shed my cloak and shield my dagger I will happily be so engaged, but until then I felt that prudence suggested I demur. One cannot rule out the thought that you, too, might bear the brunt of selecting me for this honor.

At any rate, it was a noble consideration on your part and I thank you for it.

Over the years I have kept in touch indirectly with your heroics and success through our colleague and friend, Bill Casey, and I gather you are still going at 110 percent and looking stronger every day. Keep it up.

With best wishes for continued success and an enjoyable holiday.

Warm regards,

John N. McMahon

AMERICANS FOR THE REAGAN AGENDA

1667 K Street, N.W., Suite 950
Washington, D.C. 20006
(202) 396-1988

November 8, 1985

The Honorable John N. McMahon
Deputy Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, DC 20505

Dear John:

On December 11, 1985, PROJECT '88: Americans for the Reagan Agenda plans a tribute to William Loeb, the late publisher of the Manchester Union Leader, New Hampshire's only statewide newspaper, in Washington at the Sheraton Washington Hotel with Nackey Loeb as the guest of honor. Vice President George Bush will highlight the evening as the keynote speaker.

I hope that you will join me in honoring Bill Loeb by agreeing to serve as an honorary co-chairman for the dinner. I know this is short notice, however Nackey will never forget your participation in making the evening a great success. As an honorary co-chairman I ask that you lend your name to PROJECT '88: Americans for the Reagan Agenda for the purpose of promoting the dinner, and of course, I would like you to attend the dinner as our guest. In addition, I hope you will join other prominent officials for a special VIP reception before the dinner.

PROJECT '88: Americans for the Reagan Agenda is paying this tribute to Bill Loeb for all that he did for our country and for President Reagan. Bill made a difference for New Hampshire and for all America. His memory lives on in my home state, and I believe it will live on nationwide -- his was a voice for freedom the world over, for family values, for less government -- in short, the goals you and I have fought so hard for.

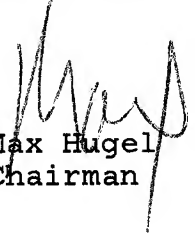

PROJECT '88: Americans for the Reagan Agenda is a national effort to support President Reagan's programs and policies through the second term.

Regretted: 11/14/85 to majorie.

I ask you again to join Nackey and Vice President Bush in honoring Bill. Unfortunately, the dinner is approaching fast and we need your answer this week. A member of my staff will be calling you very shortly to get your response.

I hope to see you Wednesday evening, December 11, so we can together pay tribute to Bill Loeb.

With best regards,

Max Hugel
Chairman
